

Services which can be offered in electronic contracting

1. Validation Services support the process of ensuring the validity of contracts.
2. Negotiation services provide an environment for the contract negotiation process.
3. Monitoring Services observes the actions of contracting parties and indicates the non-performance of contracted obligations.
4. Enforcement Services takes the necessary action in case of non-performance of contracting obligations
5. Arbitration Services assist in solving the disputes that arise during the formation and execution of a contract
6. Repository Services provides information that helps in the formation of contracts and in checking the validity of contracts.